

Nicolae Suciu

MD, PhD

Is Full Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Carol Davila University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Bucharest, Romania.

He is the manager of the Obstetrics and Gynecology Clinic within Alessandrescu-Rusescu National Institute of Mother and Child Health, former President of the Romanian Society of Obstetrics and Gynecology and President of the Romanian Society of Minimally Invasive Surgery in Gynecology.

He is member of several important associations in the field (The European Association of Gynaecology and Obstetrics, The American Association of Gynaecologic Laparoscopists, The Japan Society for Promotion of Science, The American Society for Reproductive Medicine, The European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology).

With extensive experience, especially in the field of oncology gynecology, having followed several training programs abroad (e.g. Laparoscopic Skills Enhancement and Suturing Course - Yale University School of Medicine, Department of Surgery) he has many relevant publications: Books and book chapters in the field: e.g. (1) Treatise on the extrapelvic surgery of ovarian cancer - Editor: N. Suciu, Authors: P.A. Cadariu, N. Bacalbasa, A. Blidaru, Carol Davila University Press and The Publishing House of the Romanian Academy, 2017, Bucharest, Romania; (2) Diagnostic and therapeutic aspects in the endometrium neoplasm - Editor: G. Bănceanu, Authors: N. Suciu, O. Toader, N. Bacalbasa, Carol Davila University Press, 2016, Bucharest, Romania; (3) Clinical aspects and Pathology of the Ovary - Author: N. Suciu, Carol Davila University Press, 2010, Bucharest, Romania.

He is also Principal Investigator of several national and international Research Projects and Director of many national health programs related to the mother and child.

